Inaugural Energy Summit
Energy, Economics and the Environment
Creating a Sustainable Future

RIVERSIDE, CA (Thursday, October 1, 2009) – The Inland Empire Economic Partnership (IEEP) will be hosting the Inaugural Energy Summit on November 6, 2009 at the DoubleTree Hotel in Ontario. Made possible by the generous support of this year’s presenting sponsors, Southern California Gas, A Sempra Energy Company and Southern California Edison, the partnership is hosting “Energy, Economics and the Environment: Creating a Sustainable Future.”

Energy will play a key role in our future economic growth and recovery of the Inland Empire. This Energy Summit presents an opportunity to gain knowledge from top experts on topics such as energy policy, energy efficiency and conservation, green house gas reduction and renewable industry opportunities.

Regional business owners and community leaders are invited to engage in discussions including energy project funding, incentive programs, Climate Action legislative impacts and evolving energy-related technologies. An Exhibit Expo will feature leading companies in the energy related industries.

In addition to the expo, two panel discussions will take place prior to the keynote speaker. The first panel “Energy, Economics and the Environment” will address topics such as: energy policy, energy efficiency and conservation.

The second panel “Sustainable Success” will discuss success stories from Southern California Edison and The Southern California Gas Company customers.

The Inaugural Energy Summit runs from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the DoubleTree Hotel, 222 North Vineyard Avenue, Ontario CA 91764. Admission is $50. For more information and to register, please visit www.2009energysummit.eventbrite.com or email questions to events@ieep.com.

Sponsorship and exhibit space opportunities are still available. For more information, please contact Cari Mendez at 951-779-6700 x239 or cmendez@ieep.com.
